Instructions for training participants for passenger and off-road vehicles training courses

- The practical part of the training is done outdoors, and during the explanation and demonstration of the exercises you will be outside the car - check the weather forecast for Subotiče for the training day and dress sporty, comfortable and in accordance with the announced weather conditions. In summer, closed shoes are mandatory and sunglasses are preferred.
- Don't forget your ID card or passport and driver's license. The documents must be valid, and the driver's license must be of the appropriate category according to the type of vehicle on which the training is carried out.
- Before the start of the training, you will fill out a Disclaimer of Liability, the text of which can be found at navak.rs. The statement is filled out by entering the required data using a smartphone, in accordance with the instructions given on site.
- Come to the NAVAK Center at the time indicated on the voucher. Be punctual because after the start of the training, entrance to the NAVAK Center is not possible. If you are late, your participation in the training will not be possible and it will be considered that you have used it.
- The consumption of tobacco products of all kinds is strictly prohibited in all closed rooms and on the training ground, except in the immediate vicinity of the ashtrays in front of the main entrance.
- Staying on the track outside the group or separating from the group is not allowed and is considered very dangerous.
- Strict adherence to the trainer's instructions is necessary for overall safety - the training is completely safe for participants, trainers and vehicles, but only as long as it is carried out in accordance with the trainer's program and instructions. The NAVAK Center reserves the right to remove from the training any participant who ignores the instructions of the NAVAK Center staff, especially the instructions related to the safety of trainers and training participants. Also, the NAVAK Center reserves the right to remove from the training a participant who shows an exceptional lack of driving skills or knowledge of the language in which the training takes place, which prevents him from participating in the training in a safe manner. In case of removal of the participant from the training for the stated reasons, the training is considered to have been used without the right to a refund.
